

Personal Data Sheet of Marcel Stegmüller, Pilot

Name:	Marcel Stegmüller
Age:	41
Residence:	Leingarten near Stuttgart, Germany
Since 1986	Active practice of RC model flying
In 1988 In 1991	Flying of self-designed model helicopters and development of helicopters with electric engine
Since Sept 1990	Studies of Aeronautic and Space Technology at the University of Stuttgart, Germany
July 1996	Student Research Project "Optimization of rotor blade profiles for helicopters" with Prof. Dr. Eppler and Prof. Dr. Wagner
January 1998	Passed the PPL-E practical exam and obtained type-rating for Robinson R22 and Bell 206 B/L Jet-Ranger / Long-Ranger
August 1998	Participation in the German Open Helicopter Championships in Noerdlingen, Germany: Rank 3 of Juniors
August 1999	Participation in the World Helicopter Championships in Noerdlingen, Germany: Rank 1 of Juniors (Junior World Champion 1999)
September 2001	Participation in the German Open Helicopter Championships in Lachen-Speyerdorf, Germany: Rank 1 of Juniors, Rank 5 of total scoring
August 2002	Participation in the World Helicopter Championships in Aigen, Austria: Rank 4 of Juniors

- September 2003 Participation in the German Open Helicopter Championships in Stendal-Borstel, Germany: Rank 1 of Juniors, Rank 5 of total scoring. Awarded by Bell Helicopter, Textron.
- September 2004 Participation in the German Open Helicopter Championships in Zweibruecken, Germany: Rank 1 of Juniors and German Vice Champion among Seniors, 4th place of total ranking Awarded by Tutima.
- September 2005 Participation in the World Helicopter Championships in Rouen, France: Rank 1 of Juniors and 10th place of total ranking Awarded by Breitling
- September 2005 Type-Rating EC120 at Eurocopter Marignane
- From Sept. 2005 Company-Flights for Dieffenbacher GmbH + Co. KG on their Helicopter EC120
- September 2006 Participation in the German Open Helicopter Championships in Ballenstedt, Germany: Rank 1 of Juniors and 5th place of total ranking
- August 2007 Participation in the German Open Helicopter Championships in Eisenach, Germany: Rank 3 of Germans and 4th place of total ranking
- August 2008 Participation in the World Helicopter Championships at Eisenach, Germany: Rank 4 of Germans and 15th place of total ranking.
- August 2009 Participation in the German Open Helicopter Championships in Mengen, Germany: Rank 1 of Germans and second place of total ranking
- From August 2009 Flight according to the AOC of LGM Mannheim on Helicopter Type EC120, VIP Transportation.
- August 2010 Participation in the Swiss / German Open Helicopter Championship in Grenchen, Swiss: Rank 1 of Germans and third place of total ranking
- From August 2010 Flight according to the AOC of Motorflug Baden-Baden GmbH on Helicopter Type EC120, VIP Transportation.
- July 2011 Participation in the German Open Helicopter Championship in Bamberg, Rank 1 of Germans
- August 2012 Participation in the World Helicopter Championships Drakino, Rank 1 of Germans, Rank 3 Team

More than 1100 flight hours up to date, more than 850 hours on EC120, all exclusively on helicopters, more than 3100 starts and landings as well as 330 autorotations.

August 24, 2013

Marcel Stegmüller